

BIRTHPLACE OF GENERAL GRANT

Home-Coming Week at Point Pleasant, O., Scene of Festivities.
MANY NOTABLES PRESENT
TABLET UNVEILED IN HONOR OF LATE PRESIDENT.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 2.—In the presence of a distinguished gathering that included many old army associates, a memorial tablet at the birthplace of President U. S. Grant, at Point Pleasant, in Clermont county, was unveiled today. It was the first of three days' celebration of the centennial and home-coming week of Clermont county, and thousands of native sons joined in paying honor to the country's most illustrious warrior son.

A bronze cannon and memorial tablet had been placed on what was believed to be the exact spot on which was located the house in which Grant was born, and about this were gathered Governor Andrew L. Harris, Lieutenant General Henry Corbin, U. S. A., retired; Brigadier General Fred D. Grant, a delegation of the Ohio commandery of the Loyal Legion and relatives and other guests. A detachment of the regular soldiers from Fort Thomas acted as guard of honor and assisted in the services. A large party of visitors went up from this city by steamer to participate.

General Corbin Presided.
General Henry C. Corbin, a native of Clermont county, as well as personal acquaintance of the dead soldier-president, presided, and Belleville Simpson, a cousin of President Grant, was secretary.

After the invocation and welcoming address by Elijah Archer Connor, Governor Harris made an address.
"Ohio has furnished her quota of writers and inventors and orators and jurists and statesmen and warriors," said Governor Harris, in closing, "today we honor him who stood first among the military chieftains of his time. To the humblest youth of our land his life is an inspiration."

Judge James B. Swing of Cincinnati, another son of Clermont county, delivered an address. General Corbin then presented the memorial, which he said marked "the birthplace of the greatest soldier and one of the most illustrious citizens of the republic."

The response in acceptance of the simple memorial was spoken by the soldier son of the soldier-president, General Fred D. Grant.
On a metal tablet which is affixed to the tablet, appears this inscription:

"General Ulysses Simpson Grant, General United States Army, and twice elected president of the United States. Was born on April 27, of year 1822, in a house located on this spot."

HOLD CONVENTION TODAY

Democrats to Name City Ticket With Good Chance of Electing It.

At 2 o'clock, this afternoon the Democratic city convention will be called to order by Henry W. Gwilliam, chairman of the city central committee, and as soon thereafter as the usual formalities can be done away with the work of naming a ticket will be taken up and disposed of.

The Democrats of the city have done well in their selection of councilmen to represent the various wards this year. Never before has there been a stronger combination placed before the people. There is no doubt that the city ticket will also be a strong one and one that the people at large, irrespective of political creed, can afford to support at the polls this fall.

Unlike the Republicans, however, no slate has been fixed up by the Democrats, and all aspiring candidates will have an equal show in the convention. Indications at the present time are that Ogden is ready for a change to Democratic rule and it is expected that the delegates at the convention today will aid this by nominating a list of business men as candidates for all city offices. If the recent primaries are any criterion the attendance at the convention should be a record breaker.

GETS LETTER FROM WIFE

Mrs. Fred C. Walker Writes Husband and Desires to Be at His Side.

For the first time since his arrest for the alleged murder of Dr. Earl S. Beers, Fred C. Walker yesterday received a letter from his wife, who is in Los Angeles and who is given the credit for being the cause of the whole affair. The letter was received at the county jail and was turned over to the accused man. This is believed to be the first direct communication received by Walker from his wife since the tragedy.

The contents of the missive are unknown. It is understood, however, that Mrs. Walker is anxious to come back to him in order that she may be by his side in this hour of trial. Walker refuses absolutely anything regarding his personal affairs, especially when it comes to talking about his wife or anything connected with his coming trial.

MEETING A FIZZLE.

"American" Party Still Not Launched in Ogden.

The much-heralded meeting of the "American" party, scheduled for last evening, and which was to have marked the advent of the party in Ogden, proved to be the biggest kind of fizzle. In a real estate office about ten gathered. For two hours they sat without a light in the room and waited for William Snyder and A. J. Weber, of Salt Lake, who had been expected to appear, but failed to materialize. The meeting resembled more a spiritualistic seance than a political gathering. At the end of that time the telephone was brought into use, but all efforts to locate the missing leaders in Zion proved of no avail. As a balm to the wounded feelings of those who had assembled it was then announced that the word had been passed that the launching of the movement should be withheld until after the Democratic convention today.

Among those present were Dan Pugh, A. Harris, C. A. Smith, C. A. Smith, Horace S. Foster and O. A. N. Kennedy.

Hulaniski Will Run Campaign.

Hulaniski was elected chairman of both committees. The members of the executive committee are: Sidney Stevens, W. C. Howell, E. W. Wade, Rudolph Kuehler, A. Power, William Glassmann, E. T. Hulaniski, David Jensen and J. V. Bluth.

BEAUTIFUL SISTERS WHO ALSO HAVE TALENT AND AMBITION

There is a show girl with John Cort's production of "The Alaskan," the new comic opera production coming to the Salt Lake theatre next week, who has the distinction of being the designer of the attractive pieces of show posters used by the company to exploit the merits of the attraction. Her name is Elsie Reed and she came from Seattle with her sister, Genevieve Reed, who is also a show girl in the production.

The Reed sisters were both beautiful and accomplished girls with greater ambitions than the show girl halo. Elsie expects to be a famous artist and Genevieve is determined to become a great prima donna.

Mr. Cort was skeptical, when, at rehearsal one day, Miss Reed informed him that she had made a poster sketch for "The Alaskan" which she would like to submit to him. While Miss Reed came from her own home town and he knew her to be studious and clever, managers on general principles do not look for such accomplishments as Miss Reed proved to possess in the ranks of show girls or choruses and Mr. Cort didn't take the proposition seriously until the design was presented to him, and at once accepted because of its striking originality.

LOOFBOUROW HAS DIFFICULT TASK

District Attorney Is Busy Getting Evidence for Grand Jury.

Frederick C. Loofbourow, district attorney, is making extensive preparations for the assembly of the grand jury Oct. 8. In order to arrange his work so that he can handle the jury properly he has postponed all criminal trials until after Nov. 1 and this will allow him to assist the jury for three weeks without interruption.

"I have collected considerable evidence concerning the alleged food trust," said the district attorney yesterday, "and I am working every day securing more. At the best the collection of such evidence is an imposing task and one which is beset with difficulties. One must overcome the tendency of exaggeration on the part of many of those who possess competent evidence. He must also guard against being misled by erroneous conclusions by misstatements of facts. I have had considerable difficulty in obtaining just the information I desire and my troubles are increasing instead of diminishing."

"I am now at work examining the antitrust laws and endeavoring to revitalize the evidence which I have in my possession to their provisions."

The lack of funds available to push the investigation will no doubt be a serious drawback to the collection of evidence. The Real Estate association has raised $25,000 but this will not be enough for the county has no funds which can be diverted to this purpose. It is probable, however, that after the jury assembles an impetus will be given to the collection of funds and that an additional amount of considerable size will be collected by those interested in the prosecution.

Sheriff Emery has served the subpoenas on the fifteen takersmen drawn, and they will all report, with possibly one exception, Oct. 8. After a charge from Judge Armstrong the seven selected for jury duty will begin the deliberations which may last several months.

Burglars broke into the feed store of Bailey & Sons, at 62 East Second South street, last night, and stole $5 from the safe. The safe had been left unlocked when the store was closed and the thieves had no trouble getting into it.

TRANSFORMATIONS

Curious Results When Coffee Drinking Is Abandoned.

It is almost as hard for an old coffee toper to quit the use of coffee as it is for a whisky or tobacco fiend to break off, except that the coffee user can quit coffee and take up Postum without any feeling of a loss of the morning beverage, for when Postum is well boiled and served with cream, it is really better in point of flavor than most of the coffee served nowadays, and to the taste of the connoisseur it is like the flavor of fine, mild Java.

A great transformation takes place in the body within ten days or two weeks after coffee is left off and Postum used, for the reason that the poison to the nerves—caffeine—has been discontinued and in its place is taken a liquid food that contains the most powerful elements of nourishment.

It is easy to make this test and prove these statements by changing from coffee to Postum Food. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

MURDERED BY DEGENERATE

Nellie Quinn, Found Dead in New York Rooming House, Victim of Atrocious Crime.

New York, Oct. 2.—An autopsy performed today in the body of Nellie Quinn, the young woman who was found dead in a furnished room in East One Hundred and Eighteenth street yesterday, showed that her death was caused by a degenerate, and that she was the victim of atrocious maltreatment. The cause of death is given in the certificate as hemorrhage due to lacerations.

What were at first supposed to be the marks of a bludgeon on the face and body were found to be the marks of a man's teeth. The woman's parents in Boston have been notified.

George W. Kramer, who was arrested last night and who said he shared the room with the young woman from Friday to Monday, it was said today by officials, did not appear to be in his right mind.
